ICAC books published in 2020

Take a look at these books the ICAC Publishing Unit in 2020.

Two new issues in our digital series TRAMA: One led by M. Carme Belarte (ICREA-ICAC), on Protohistoric archaeology, and the other led by Josep Maria Macias, on Visigoth archaeology.

With great care and dedication on the part of authors and editors, a new volume of the series Corpus Signorvm Imperii Romani has been released; a project with which ICAC is been involved for ten years (and which will be the reason for a very special celebration). The new volume is devoted to the province of Cádiz (Hispania Vlterior Baetica); edited with Editorial UCA and our esteemed colleague José Miguel Noguera.

We have also coedited the new volume of the series Arqueo Mediterrània (University of Barcelona), which publishes outputs of the VIII International Meeting of Archaeology of Calafell.

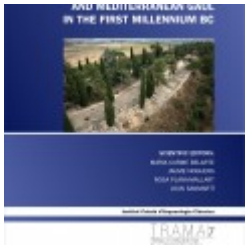

Finally, the ICAC has collaborated in the edition of La cava e il Monumento (Edizioni Quasar), within the results of the Officinae lapidariae Tarraconenses research project, led by Diana Gorostidi (URV-ICAC).
